

Sixteenth Management Seminar for the Heads of National Statistical Offices in Asia and the Pacific |30 November-1 December 2021|

Under the theme of "Transforming Institutions is Transforming People", participants were invited to share knowledge and identify priority actions for member States, United Nations entities and development partners to transform human resources management and skills development efforts in national statistical systems to build agile, resilient and responsive statistical institutions in Asia and the Pacific for the future.

Seventeenth session of the Governing Council of the Statistical Institute for Asia and the Pacific |2 and 3 December 2021|

In its seventeenth session, the Council considered several issues, including the report of the Director on its achievements in 2021 and the proposed work plan for 2022 as well as further development of e-learning training materials and methodologies by SIAP.

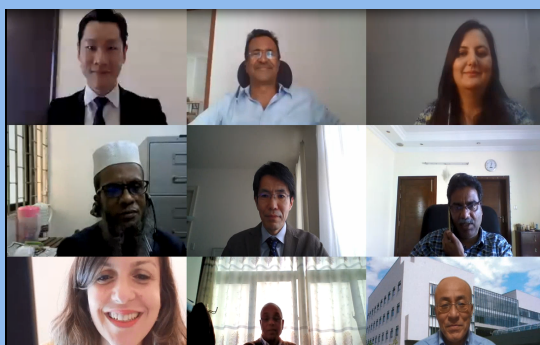

Seventh Meeting of the Network for the Coordination of Statistical Training in Asia and the Pacific |7 December 2021|

- The meeting started with reports of activities and perspectives of subgroups on gender statistics and economic statistics, followed by reports on challenges of COVID-19 to training and how to overcome them by member states.

E-learning course on sustainable development goals (SDG 9): Industry, innovation and infrastructure |8 November-10 December 2021|

Webinar session on 8 December 2021

The course was developed by SIAP and UNIDO and provided opportunities to participants to learn about the main pillars of SDG 9, the relationship of this goal and the 2030 Agenda with Inclusive and Sustainable Industrial Development (ISID), including its contribution to building peace and prosperity for all. The second webinar session held on 8 December reviewed modules 4 and 5 of the course whilst inviting Ms Nadia Aftab and Mr Masroor Ahmed Khan as guest speakers as well as Mr Fernando Cantu Bazaldua, Ms Petra Kynclova, Mr Nobuya Haraguchi, Mr Adnan Seric and Mr Charles Fang Chin as lecturers from UNIDO.

E-learning course: Foundational course on Statistical Business Register (SBR) |27 September-12 November 2021|

Webinar session on 4 November 2021

This course was developed by SIAP, United Nations Statistics Division and the Economic Research and Regional Cooperation Department of ADB. The third webinar session on 4 November recapitulated modules 6 and 7 of the course. The session invited Ms Ilaria Di Matteo, Chief of the Business Statistics Section as well as Ms Maki Arakaki, Visiting Fellow from United Nations Statistics Division as presenters.