
Lesson 2: fundamental definitions and concepts of selected topics related to youth

Exercise

1. Health

1. The age of a 9- month child must be recorded as “one year” in the population census.

True False

2. The category “married but separated” in marital status should include only legally separated couples.

True False

3. The data on fertility in the basic census tabulations Should NOT be used for the direct calculation of fertility rates

True False

4. Information on number of children born alive (lifetime fertility) should include all children born alive (that is to say, excluding foetal deaths) during the life time of the woman concerned up to the census date

True False

2. Education

1. Person who can read but not write should be considered as literate.

True False

2. In-service training courses in factories should NOT be considered as school attendance.

True False

3. The census questionnaire should NOT collect information on the number of “out-of-school” or “ever-in school” children.

True False

4. School attendance is complementary to but must be distinguished from “school enrolment” which typically is obtained from administrative data.

True False

5. Which of the following international standards are used for categorizing information on education?

ISIC

COICOP

ISCED

None of the above

3. Economic activity

1. The “economically active population” comprises all persons of either sex between 15 to 65 years old.

True False

2. Production of goods for the purpose of own final consumption is considered as economic activity.

True False

3. The employed population comprises all persons above the minimum specified age, who, during a short reference period of either one week or one day:

a) performed some work for pay, profit or family gain, in cash or in kind

b) taking care of their children at home

c) were temporarily absent from a job in which they had already worked and to which they maintained a formal attachment or from a self-employment activity

all of the above

a and c

4. Unemployment rate is the percentage of total population who are unemployed.

True False