Country Course on Labour Accounts in Malaysia

14 – 18 October 2019, Perak, Malaysia

Daily Programme

Topics	Time
Monday, 14 October, 2019
Opening ceremony: Welcome and introduction • Opening remarks by DOSM • Opening remarks by SIAP • Group photo	9:00-9:30
Module 1. Labour Accounts • Background, sources and methodologies in Labour Statistics • What is a Labour Account? • Importance of integrated framework	9:30-10:30
Coffee break	10:30-11:00
Module 2. ILO and SNA Approaches • ILO and SNA approaches in definition of employment • General Aspects in Labour Accounts and Decent Work Indicators • Two approaches used in compilation of Labour Accounts	11:00-12:30
Lunch break	12:30-13:30
Module 3. Group Exercise Session 3.1 • Purpose and Uses of Labour Accounts • Example of Australian uses of a Labour Accounts	13:30-14:00

• Participants to start developing country level business case for the policy questions that the labour account can address. Break into groups to discuss:
  o What are the benefits of having the labour account?
  o How are the main potential users of the account?
  o Who holds the data sources needed?
  o What level/type of skills and systems will be needed?
	14:00-15:00

Coffee break	15:00-15:30
Session 3.2 Group discussion • One participant from each break out group to report back • Room discussion with aim to produce business case for Malaysia Labour Accounts	15:30-17:00

Topics	Time
Tuesday, 15 October, 2019
Module 4. Integration Process with case studies Session 4.1 • First Step: Definition of the model and of the identity equations • Second Step: Harmonization of definitions and classifications in source statistics, achievement of full coverage	9:00-10:30
Coffee break	10:30-11:00
Session 4.2 • Third Step: Minimization of measurement errors • Fourth Step: Balancing	11:00-12:30
Lunch break	12:30-13:30
Module 5. Case Study: Australia Session 5.1 • Australian Labour accounts framework and concepts	13:30-15:00
Coffee break	15:00-15:30
Session 5.2. Case Study: Australia • Australian Labour Accounts sources and methodologies • Difficulties encountered during compilation • Discussion	15:30-17:00
Wednesday, 16 October, 2019
Module 6. Practical exercise: Compiling Malaysian Labour Accounts Session 6.1 • Presentation on Malaysian labour statistics • Data sources and methodologies • Current challenges	9:00-10:30
Coffee break	10:30-11:00
Session 6.2 • Steps to be taken in the integration process in Malaysia • Discussion	11:00-12:30
Lunch break	12:30-13:30
Session 6.3 • Preparation of data sources and format to compile Malaysian labour accounts	13:30-15:00
Coffee break	15:00-15:30
Session 6.4 • Preparation of data sources and format to compile Malaysian labour accounts	15:30-17:00

Topics	Time
Thursday, 17 October, 2019
Session 7. Present outcomes from previous day's session • What are the data sources (internal and external) that are available? • What are the scope and coverage? • What is the frequency? • What are the gaps?	9:00-10:30
Coffee break	10:30-11:00
Session 7.1 – Group Work • Compiling Malaysian Labour Accounts	11:00-12:30
Lunch break	12:30-13:30
Session 7.2 • Balancing a Labour Account an Australian example	13:30-15:00
Coffee break	15:00-15:30
Session 7.3 – Group Work • Balancing Malaysian Labour Account	15:30-17:00
Friday, 18 October, 2019
Session 8.1 • How to communicate the different data sources for policy makers • Group discussion on Labour Accounts	9:00-10:30
Coffee break	10:30-11:00
Review and wrap up	11:00-11:30
Closing ceremony: Awarding certificates	11:30-12:00