

National Statistical Office
Thailand

On Gender-focused
Time Use Survey
Data analysis

By Pstharee Panmee

16-19 April, 2013, Japan

National Statistical Office, Thailand

Background and Objective

The survey was conducted three time :

- In 2001.
- In 2004.
- In 2009.

Collecting data about the time spent in the activity with in 1 day (24 hours) in the daily life of the population

Coverage

The Population in the coverage of this survey consists of who are members of private households sample aged 10 years and over include both municipalities and non-municipalities on the country

Type of Data Collection

Definition

Definition : Activities

Activities that the person spends time to do without concerning about benefits
Divide in 2 categories

1. Main Activity

Activity that the people who answer the questionnaire is most concerned or want to do the most

2. Secondary Activity

Activity which is done at the same time with core activity, and the people who answer the questionnaire want to do it as a secondary activity and gives it a lower priority

Activities :

1. Format sector work

2. Work for household in primary production

3. Work for household in non-primary production

4. Work for household in construction

Activities : (Contd.)

5. Work for household providing services for income

6. Providing unpaid domestic services for own final use within household

7. Providing unpaid care-giving services to household members

Activities : (Contd.)

8. Providing community services and help to other households

9. Learning

10. Socializing and community participation

11. Attending/visiting cultural, entertainment and sports events/venues

Activities : (Contd.)

12. Hobbies, games and other pastime

13. Indoor and outdoor sports participation and related courses

14. Mass media

15. Personal care and maintenance

Methodology

METHODOLOGY

Stratified Three-Stage Sampling

Methodology

First : Selection of primary sampling unit

5,796 from 109,966
blocks/villages

Methodology

Secondary : Selection of secondary sampling unit

- Municipal areas :

 - 15 sample households per block

- Non-municipal areas :

 - 12 sample households per block

- Sample private households for enumeration
79,560 households

Methodology

Third : Selection of third
sampling unit

Selected one of the household members who are 10 years up

Presentation

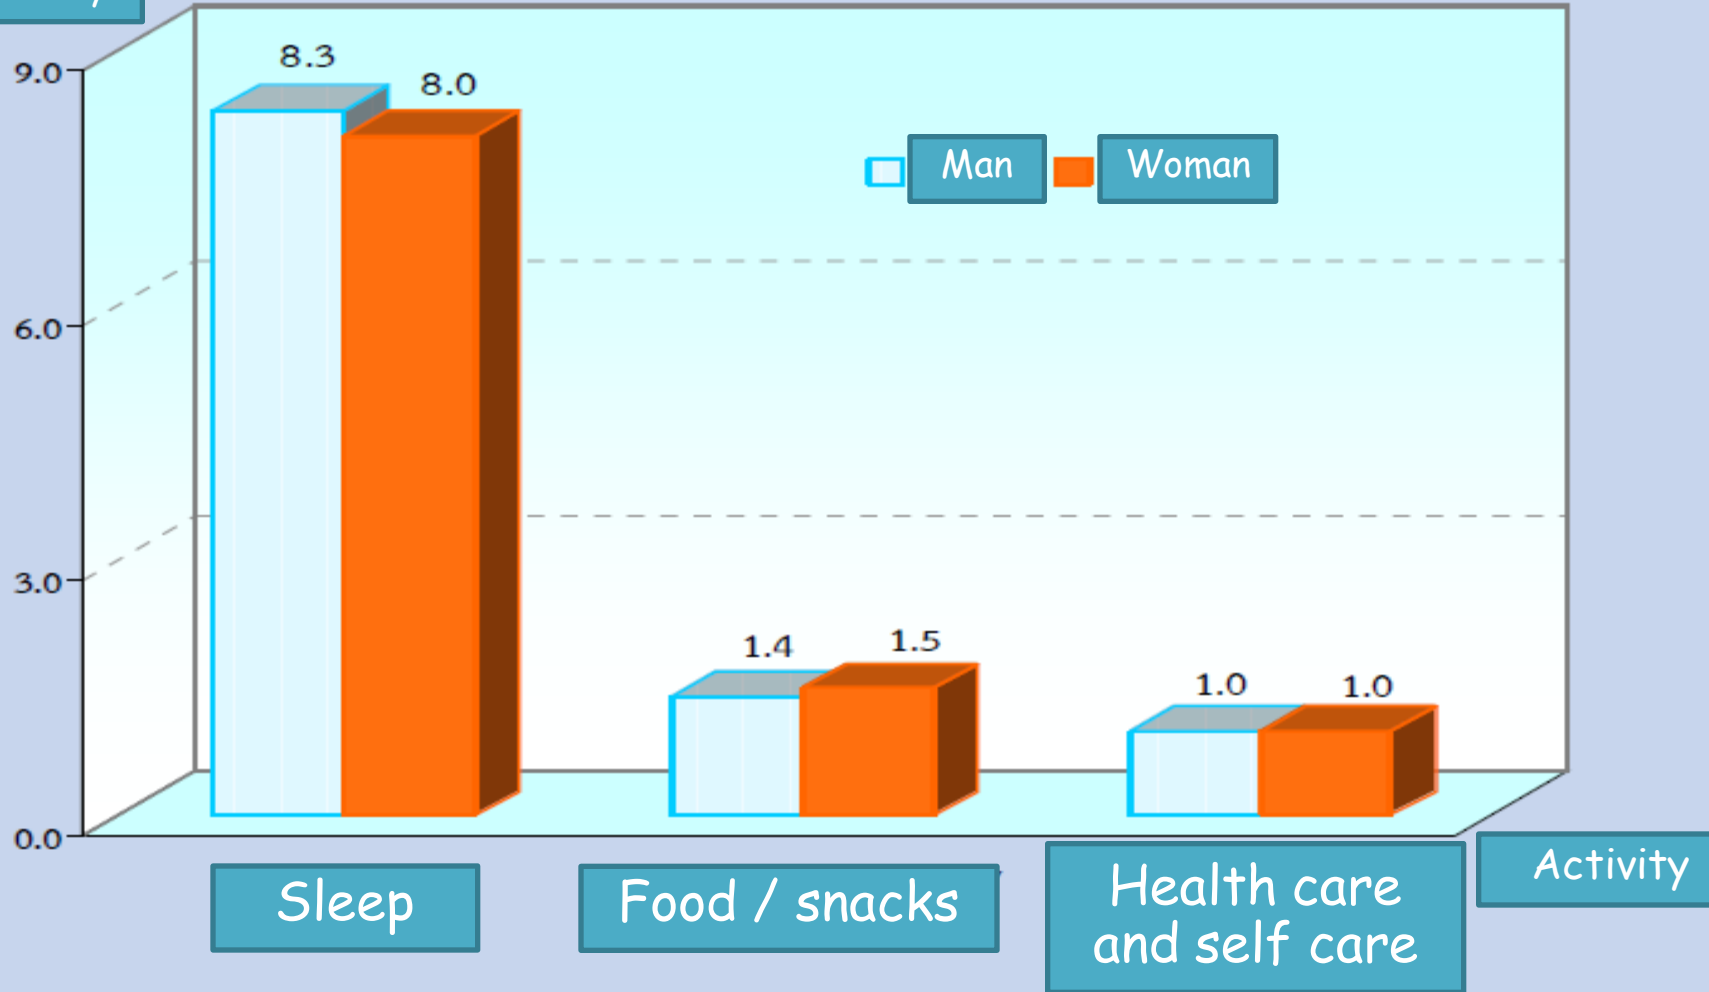

Chart 1: Spending time doing activities of population by main activities group and gender.

Source: The Time Use Survey, 2009

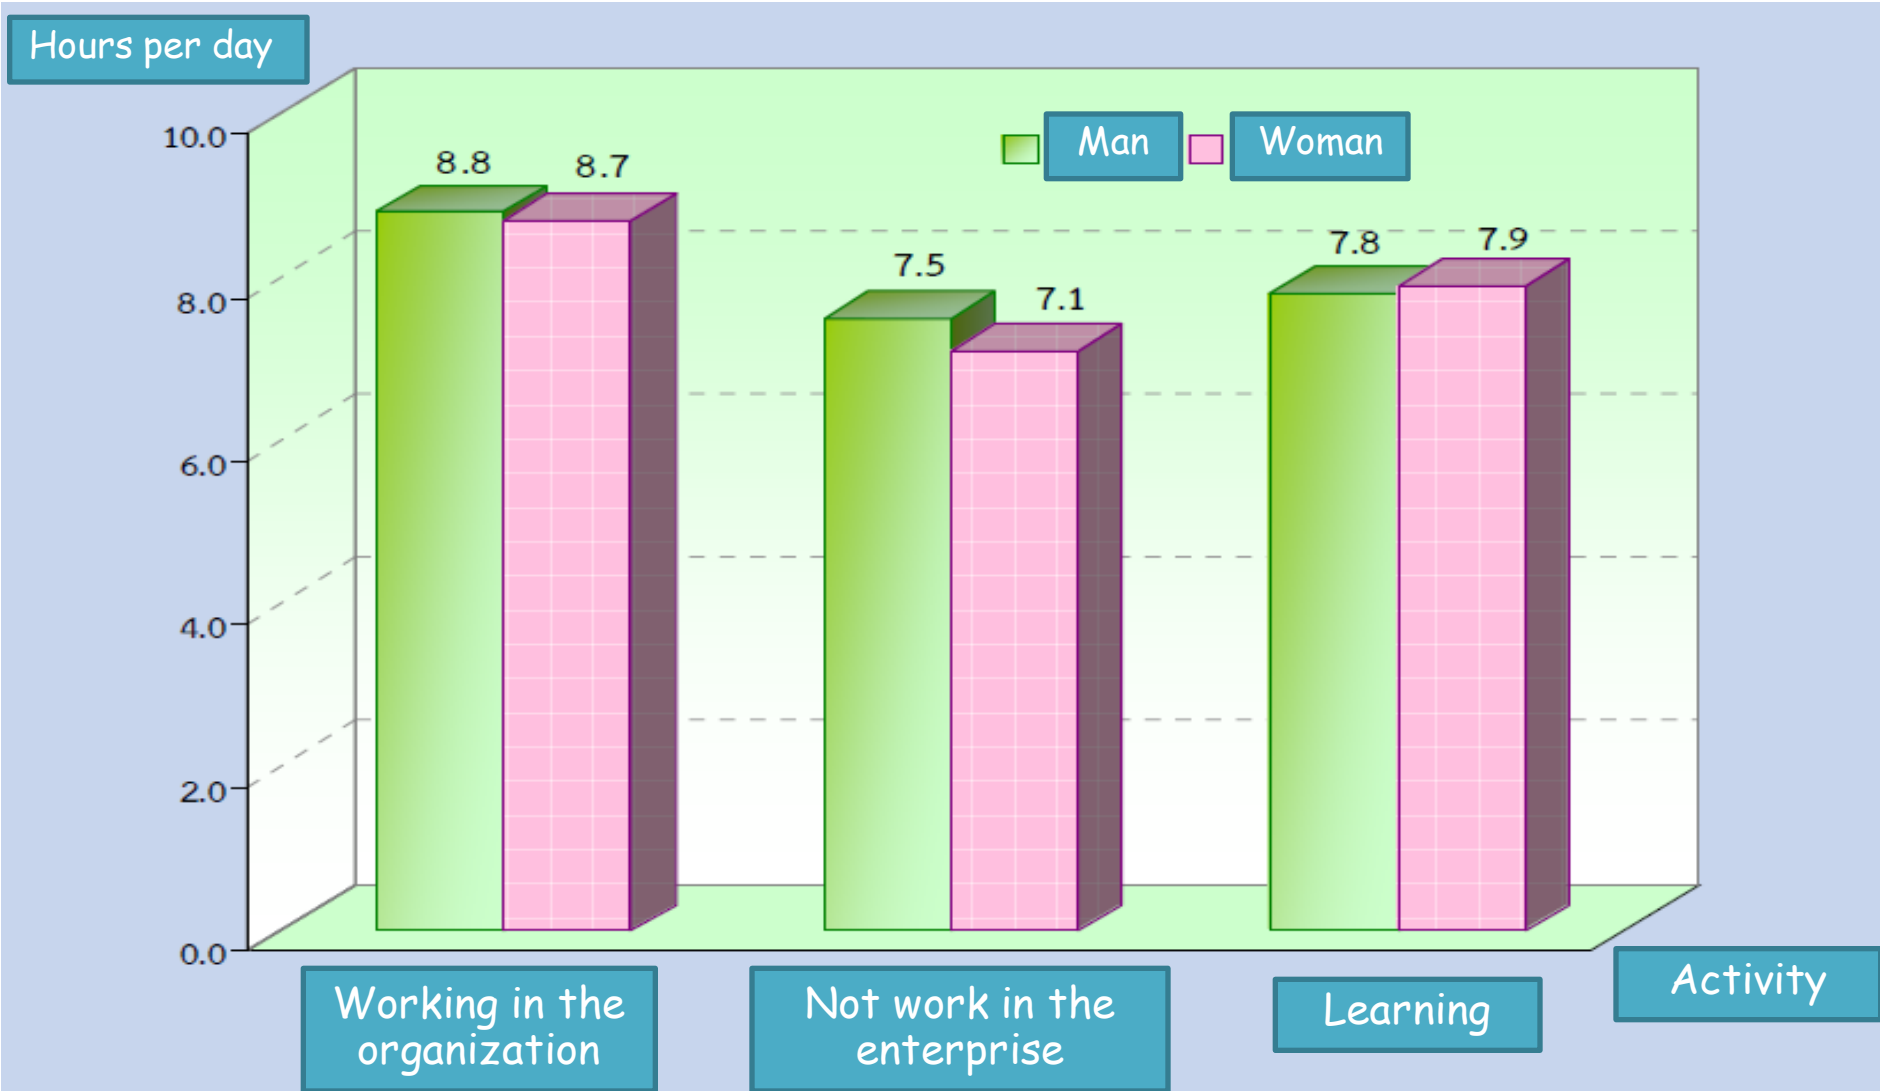

Chart 2: Spending time taking care of themselves by major sub-activity and gender.

Hours per day

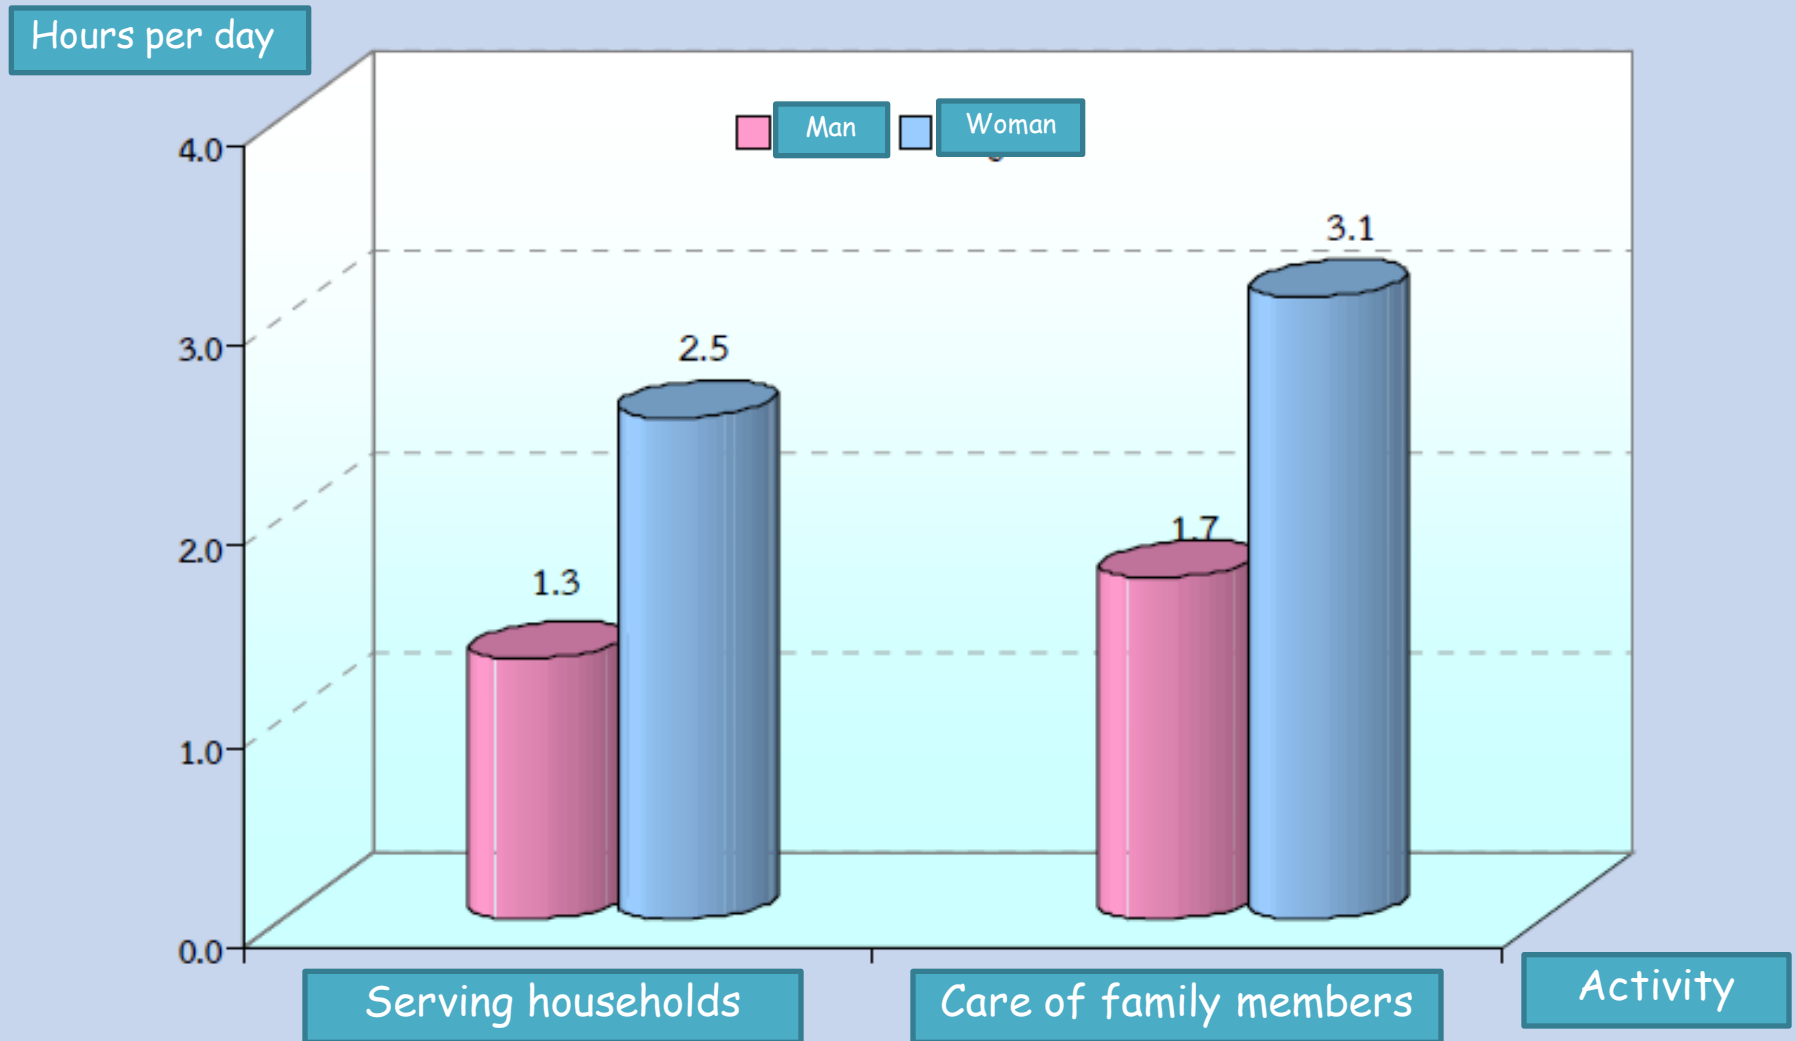

Source: The Time Use Survey, 2009

Chart 3: Spending time in working and learning by major sub-activity and gender.

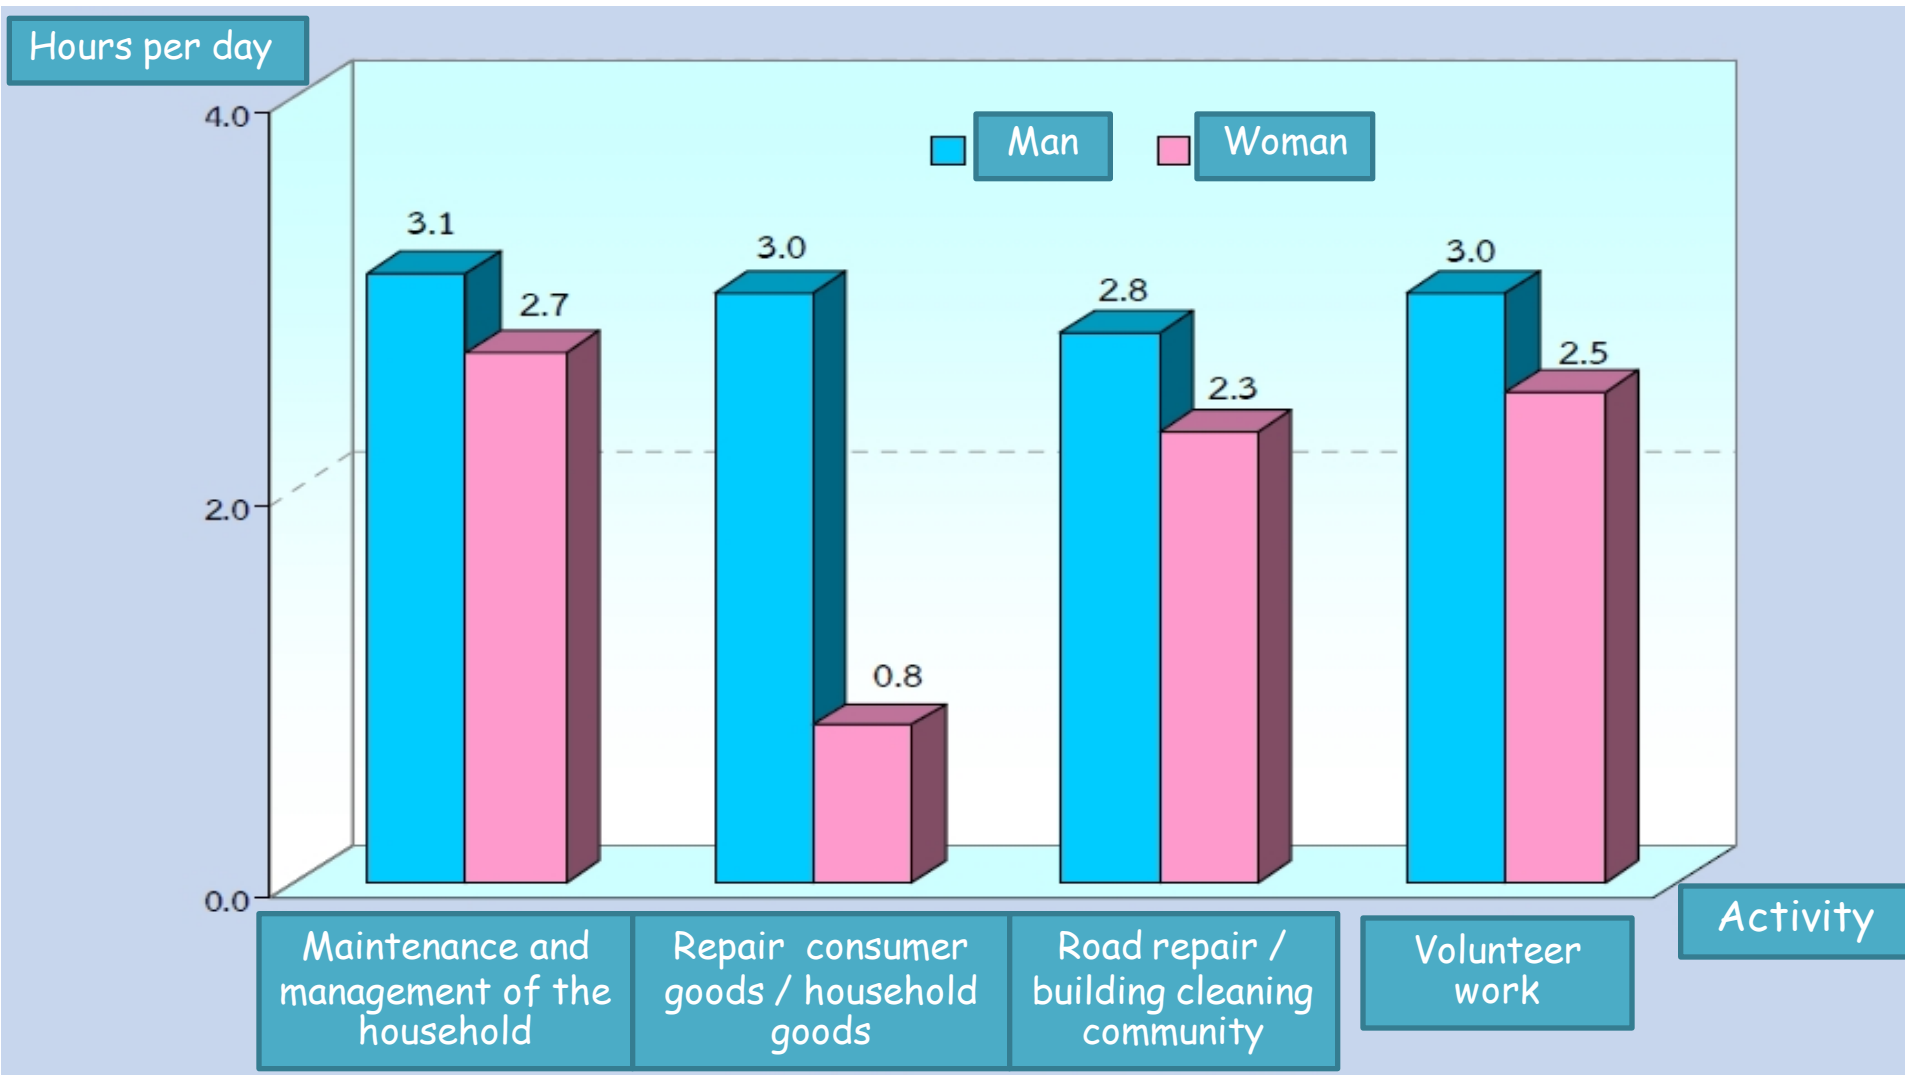

Source: The Time Use Survey, 2009

Chart 4: Spending time serving and taking care of family members by major sub-activity and gender.

Source: The Time Use Survey, 2009

Chart 5: Spending time in community service by major sub-activity and gender.

Source: The Time Use Survey, 2009